

ATS PHOTO COMPETITION OCTOBER 2025

Huge thanks to all the photographers who submitted a record number of images for this competition. The quality was exceptionally. The next ATS Photography Competition - for the April 2026 edition - will open in Feb 2026 so get snapping now!

Description: Underground spider
Project: Snowy 2.0 project – Lobs Hole
Location: NSW
Photographer: Soroush Ghaderi
Soroush will receive a $200 prize for this stunning image.

Description: Swan Street Shaft Inspection - As part of the continuing inspection and maintenance of the Burnley Tunnel in Melbourne, this photo captures engineers working at the base of the Swan Street Shaft during the current low voltage upgrade project. Constructed 25 years ago, the Burnley Tunnel is a vital piece of infrastructure for Melbourne, making it essential to ensure its efficient and safe operation.

Project: Burnley Tunnel
Location: Melbourne
Photographer: Cristian Biotto

Description: These visitors are fortunate to see the Hunter St Station cavern at its most impressive stage, before the massive space gets progressively smaller with the construction of the permanent concrete lining and architectural linings.

Project: Sydney Metro West – Eastern Tunnelling Package (March 2025)
Location: Sydney
Photographer: Strath Clarke

Description: Australia's first Tunnel Misting System in Operation at the recently refurbished Heysen Tunnels in Adelaide, South Australia
Project: Heysen Tunnels
Location: Adelaide
Photographer: Phil Ruddock

Description: WTP Parramatta Station Box. TBM Dorothy breakthrough into the Parramatta Station Box, preparing for traversal and launch to complete the final 1250m drive to Westmead.

Project: Sydney Metro West Project
Location: Sydney
Photographer: Liam Armstrong

